Navitas Colleges

Navitas College of Public Safety (NCPS)

Criminal Justice and Criminology is increasing in popularity amongst Year 12 students' year-on-year, but what jobs are students completing these types of qualifications actually getting into?

Besides the Criminal Justice careers most people have heard of like state and federal policing, customs, para-legal work, court administration, youth justice, and corrections, but did you know that as well as finding careers in the main areas of Criminal Justice; students from Navitas College of Public Safety (NCPS) have gained roles in areas such as

Careers at ASIO working as intelligence officers

Travelling overseas to train prison officers in the United Arab Emirates

Working with Racing Victoria investigating gambling crimes and race fixing

Many NCPS students are also using the Criminal Justice degree as a pathway to Law.

Health Skills Australia

Health Skills Australia is a health care education specialist and one of Australia's largest private providers of Enrolled Nursing training. Students have the option to study full-time (3 days per week over 18 months) or part-time (2 days per week over 24 months). There is 10 week clinical placement included, in a range of health care settings. Students also put their theory into practice through regular lab work in state of the art facilities, as well as during placement. To find out more about nursing courses and other allied health courses offered, visit www.healthskills.com.au.

Note: All Navitas Colleges are accredited by ACPET 6– the Australian Council for Private Education and Training. Not all Private Colleges are the same and ACPET colleges adhere to a strict code of ethics and commit to providing quality education programs. Find out more about ACPET at <http://www.acpet.edu.au/>

Universities in Western Australia

There are five universities in Western Australia, one of which – the University of Western Australia – is a member of the Group of Eight universities.

Curtin University

Curtin University is a large multi-cultural university. It has a strong commitment to international engagement with Australia's third largest international student population. It maintains campuses in Malaysia and Singapore while also conducting face-to-face teaching in a number of countries. This cultural diversity adds a rich and valuable dimension to its campus atmosphere and also prepares the graduates to live and work in an increasingly global environment.

Curtin is also fundamentally committed to providing regional education within Western Australia through a number of campuses and education centres spread across the state, but also has a campus in Sydney where it offers a range of business courses. Visit <http://www.curtin.edu.au/> to find out more.

Edith Cowan University (ECU)

Established in 1991, Edith Cowan University (ECU) is a large multi-campus institution serving communities in Western Australia and a significant cohort of international students. ECU is considered a pioneer in the development of alternative entry pathways to higher education, helping Western Australians reach their potential. Visit <http://www.ecu.edu.au/> to find out more!

Murdoch University

Murdoch University has more than 18,000 students and 1,400 staff with a desire to discover, use their imaginations and ultimately make a difference. There are over 200 undergraduate degrees and postgraduate courses offered across a range of disciplines, including Veterinary Science, Law, Education, Psychology, Business, Security Terrorism and Counterterrorism and Nursing. The university is recognised for excellent teaching, ground-breaking research and high student satisfaction rating. Find out more at <http://www.murdoch.edu.au/>.

University of Western Australia (UWA)

The University of Western Australia (UWA) has very high quality undergraduates and this is underpinned by the fact that the proportion of UWA graduates accepted into full-time employment within five months of completing their course is the highest of all Western Australian universities and among the highest in Australia. UWA is also one of only two universities in Western Australia that offer graduate Medicine. Visit <http://www.uwa.edu.au/> to find out more!

University of Notre Dame Australia (UNDA)

The University of Notre Dame Australia (UNDA) was founded through an Act of the Parliament of Western Australia in December 1989, and now has over 7000 students enrolled on its three campuses in Fremantle, Sydney and Broome. UNDA is the only other Western Australian university offering graduate medicine, and it is offered at both the Fremantle and Sydney campuses. Visit <http://www.nd.edu.au/> to find out more!
