

PARENT EDUCATION SESSIONS DADS – KEYS FOR SUCCESSFUL PARENTING

Wednesday 9 September 2015, 7 – 9pm

COST: Free

SPEAKER: Jarrod Bradley

VENUE: Malvern Town Hall, Banquet Room, 1251 High Street, Malvern

Do you find it difficult to spend time with your family? What is your role as a father or male partner? How do you support your partner? How do you play with your children? How can you support your children to grow up strong, resilient and happy?

This session explores the role of men as fathers/partners in the 21st century.

We will look at how to be an involved father and supportive partner and ways to be a successful father so you can be involved in your child's life and to provide a strong, connected role model.

We will look at the issues confronting fathers/partners, which include:

- Father's role in the family (work life balance)
- Time with children and family
- Stress of supporting your family
- Connecting with your children

To register for this session of Parent Education Sessions, please visit the below website:

<http://stonnington.eventbrite.com.au>

For more information, please contact 8290 1333

